GSA Selects Alpha for Nationwide PM Training

DULLES, VA – The General Services Administration (GSA), Public Buildings Service (PBS), Office of Design and Construction (ODC) Programs has selected Alpha Corporation to provide Project Management (PM) Training for project managers located in GSA's eleven regional offices nationwide and its Central office in Washington, D.C. The training will be attended by up to 360 project managers over an 18-month period and will be based on:

- ✓ Best Practices from the Project Management Institute (PMI)
- ✓ The Best Practices highlighted in the GSA/PBS Global Project Management (gPM) Program
- ✓ The Best Practices in PBS for delivery of the capital construction program
- ✓ The Construction Industry Institute (CII) best practices related to project planning and execution in the design and construction industry.
- ✓ The Construction Management Association of America (CMAA) Standards of Practice courses related to all aspects of construction management.

This is an exciting opportunity for Alpha Corporation to support GSA's PM development program. Alpha brings to the agency and its managers the perspective of distinguished design and construction practice with over 25 years of serving the agency, plus the firm's industry leadership in PM best practices and training through CMAA, PMI and other associations.
